

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Alaska Legal Services Corporation is a private, non-profit organization that provides free legal services to those eligible. This screening application is our way to complete the following three steps:

- 1. We must first check to be sure we do not have a conflict of interest due to our prior or current representation of someone connected with your case.

When we receive an application, we review our records to see if we have already advised an opposing party. If we have, this creates a “conflict of interest,” and ALSC cannot assist the applicant. We will inform the applicant as soon as possible that we cannot provide any legal advice or representation regarding the applicant’s legal problem. Since ALSC cannot help, we will try to refer the applicant to another agency or organization for assistance.

- 2. We then must check to be sure that you are financially eligible for our services.

After checking for a conflict of interest, we review the income and asset information provided on the application form. From this, we make a preliminary determination about the applicant’s financial eligibility for our services, subject to a more thorough evaluation later. Our financial eligibility guidelines are based on federal poverty guidelines and are available upon request to any applicant.

- 3. Finally, we must screen your case to see if your situation meets the priorities of our office.

ALSC has limited resources, and so we must prioritize which cases we take. Our case acceptance decisions are guided by priorities established by the office and approved by our governing board. A copy of our priorities and case acceptance policy is available upon request.

If you are applying for legal assistance with an ongoing court case, please be sure to include copies of all court documents with your application.

We will make every attempt to let you know whether we can accept your case within two weeks of receiving your application. Please let us know if you have an emergency situation, and we will try to address your application on an expedited basis.

PLEASE NOTE AT THIS TIME OUR OFFICE IS NOT REPRESENTING YOU AND THE INFORMATION YOU PROVIDE IN THIS APPLICATION SHOULD NOT BE CONSIDERED PRIVILEGED AND IN NO WAY CREATES AN ATTORNEY CLIENT RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN YOU AND ALASKA LEGAL SERVICES CORPORATION.
