

EXPANDING JUSTICE TO EVERY COMMUNITY

ALASKA LEGAL SERVICES CORPORATION

COMMUNITY JUSTICE WORKER PROGRAM

The ALSC Community Justice Worker (CJW) program closes the justice gap in Alaska by training local volunteers to assist with legal matters for those who cannot afford civil legal aid.

BECOME A CJW VOLUNTEER

We aim to have a CJW volunteer in every Alaskan community. Training is free for those who commit to taking a case with ALSC or sharing their knowledge locally. Register for courses to assist clients or provide education in these areas:

DEBT COLLECTION DEFENSE:

Addresses strategies for handling debts, dealing with debt collectors and responding to debt-related lawsuits.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROTECTIVE ORDER ADVOCACY:

Provides best practices for assisting individuals in obtaining court orders for protection from domestic violence.

ICWA ENFORCEMENT:

Examines the application of the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) in Child in Need of Aid (CINA) cases, emphasizing the role of Tribes and ICWA Advocates in ensuring tribal voices are heard.

PREPARING WILLS:

Focuses on the importance of wills and provides basic steps for writing one.

SNAP ADVOCACY:

Covers food stamp applications, appeals processes and advocating for fair benefits in Alaska.

CJW program contact information

Alaska Legal Services Corporation

www.alsc-law.org/cjw

probono@alsc-law.org